

ADVANCED FIELD PRODUCTION: DOCUMENTARY STORYTELLING W/ C100

COURSE INFO SHEET

The theme for the fall 2017 Documentary Storytelling course is centered around Art in New York City. Students will be required to produce content in the class based on that topic and will work with a teammate during the production phase of their project. Students will also learn how to use the Advanced Field equipment so they may obtain certification to use the Canon C-100 in future projects.

This course will not teach students basic camera operation or editing skills. Students must have produced at least one project that aired on MNN utilizing MNN's field and editing equipment. Students must supply their own Mac-formatted hard drive to store and edit their media.

Before registering, please make sure you are available for all sessions noted below. There will be no opportunities to make up a missed session. There will also be some required out-of-class time to complete your documentary.

Please do not register for this course if you know there may be conflicts in your schedule.
